Comments

“ Although we have talked with Paula and Lyle, we do extend our sympathy to Kathy and Roger and all of the family of Pat Maughan at her passing. We would like to be able to attend the funeral this day and share in the memories of her life. She did so much so well. Many think of a funeral as just a time of grieving, but we realize that such can be a time of rejuvenation as family and friends reflect on the experiences of the one who has gone beyond the veil. So it will be with the funeral this day I am sure. How blessed we are to know of the great plan of happiness that can bring families together. What a joy it must have been when Pat reached the other side and could again embrace Bud and Jerry who passed to the other side so long ago, and other family members May we each feel that joy in our lives as we carry on with our time on this earth.

Extending our sympathy and love,
Jane Saunders and family, and Gloria Wheeler
