“ Wilson Family. So sorry to hear of Paul's passing. He was an inspiration to all of us. In his 90s and still working! What a guy. I know how much he missed Phyllis, so I'm happy that they can be together again. I send my love and prayers that you'll find peace at his passing.

“ My thoughts and love to each one of Paul's family. Although I know you are each glad that he is with his beloved wife once again, I also know you will miss him terribly. I have always loved Paul. I worked with him at Walmart for many years and he never walked by without a greeting and a smile. We shared a tiny place up in Canada- where I was born and where he visited during WW2... and he was always gleeful when he spoke of it! Paul is a person who had an impact on everyone he met. My love to each of you.
