“ 1st of all, I'm so sorry for your loss and have missed Ron's service today...Ron was such a pleasure to work with even if for only a short time. When he approached us at The Brokerage Real Estate Company after obtaining his real estate license we were excited. See, Ron had retired with the Service and retired with the Government. The way I saw it Ron was receiving 2 pension checks every month. Because he was still a relatively young man who was extremely credible with a strong work ethic, real estate seemed like a perfect fit. Ok, so the table's set and Ron begins his 3rd career with a wealth of knowledge, life experiences and a view on what a Realtor does like no other. After months or maybe about a year Ron approached me with the answer on what it takes to be successful in this his 3rd career. I'm not kidding with the greatest one line I have ever heard and I repeat it ALL the time. Ron said" This business would be a lot easier if we didn't have buyers and sellers..." An unbelievable but insightful line for sure. Ron I'll miss you, but I'll never miss the opportunity to use that one liner. God Bless You Ron.

“ He loved his walks in the park whenever we seen him by passing or from our yard next to the park. He always had something funny to say. What a great person he was. The Dunn family has our condolences.
