

W. Scott Bradshaw

July 1, 1960 - September 28, 2018

Willard Scott Bradshaw, 58, of Scottsdale, AZ passed away on September 28, 2018 in Pocatello, ID.

Scott Bradshaw was born in Scottsdale, AZ to Willard and LaVerne Bradshaw on July 1, 1960. From Arizona they moved to Anchorage, AK but in 1976 they relocated to Lebanon, OR, which is where he spent most of his formative years.

Scott was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was the youngest of his siblings, Steve and Robin, which helped him to get away with the most while they were teens. While attending Lebanon High School he met Tammie Pound when he was 17 and she was 15. They later married once they were both out of High School and relocated to California for Scott's career as an up and coming Retail Manager. It was in California they welcomed their daughter, Taysha Rae. They later moved to Pocatello, ID as Scott continued to move up the career chain in Management. While in Pocatello, Scott still enjoyed hunting and fishing; which in a time of no cell phones could lead to him almost being listed as a missing person. He would always return home though with that sly/wonderful smile, happy to be with his family. Though Tammie and Scott later divorced they always remained the best of friends. Another one of his outdoor passions was snowmobiling. Except for the time his daughter, who was 8 years old at the time, decided to race with the leaders of their snowmobile group. Once he caught up to them, he told her he wasn't sure whether he was more upset or proud at her ability to keep up with the big boys. A few other outdoor activities Scott took pleasure in were Rafting in Boise with his friends and even Rollerblading. That is until he tried to run in Rollerblades across the grass which left him a little worse for the wear. Scott just enjoyed being around people. Saying he was a people person is such an understatement. He was the people person.

Scott could see the joy and positive in almost any situation. He was the person that people went to with their problems or for support. He was full of his own life lessons and wisdom on any situation, whether the wisdom was asked for or not. It always was from the heart. His heart was the biggest heart there ever was.

Scott is preceded in death by his grandparents and father, Willard Bradshaw.

He is survived by his mother, LaVerne Bradshaw; former wife, Tammie Booth; daughter, Taysha (Derek) Felton; grandson, Shayden Felton; brother, Steve (Cathy) Bradshaw; sister, Robin (Randy) Covington; a niece, Corrie White and a nephew, Adam Covington.

A Celebration of Life will be held from 2pm to 4pm, October 13, 2018 at Wilks Funeral Home, 211 W. Chubbuck Road.

Memories and condolences may be shared with his family in the "Share a Memory" tab above.

“ Scott was a kind, cheerful man. His passing took my coworkers and I by surprise.

He was the type to meet you with a smile when he came in the building in the morning.

Although I never had the pleasure of working with Scott directly, our paths crossed regularly.

His co-workers will remember him forever and we wish his family the best in this troubling time.

“ I met Scott when he was just a boy in Anchorage, before I married his sister, Robin. He was in the RA group at our church where I was a leader. As a part of the Bradshaw family, there were many family gatherings through the years that we shared together. While those encounters were rare, I always enjoyed talking and sharing these celebrations with Scott. He was a good brother-in-law and he will be missed by all who knew him. Enjoy your eternal rest with the Lord, Scott!

“ I remember when Scott asked me if I would work for him at Max radiator shop driving parts around without hesitating I said yes, I knew it would be a blast. He taught me how to change my brakes and my rotors in my Durango and also showed me how to change the oil.. One day there wasn't anything to do so I decided to lay in the grass to take a little nap in the sun and soon after falling asleep the man came out and dumped a glass of water right on my head.. He laughed for so long thinking he was funny. I will miss you my Dear friend . Fly high with the Angel's and Dance yourself silly
